 - e) Pictures of each goat will be taken with the exhibitor at tag in. Failure to follow these requirements will result in disqualification, unless prior written approval has been given by the committee 24 hours prior.

It will be the responsibility of the exhibitor to transport the goat to the fairgrounds or the Chairpersons home at an agreed date and time within 5 days of notification to retag. Failure to do so will result in the disqualification of the animal.

8. Clinic & Progress show: The Market Goat progress show will be held on August 8, 2023 at 6:00pm. Goats will be weighed prior to show. Please be sure to take advantage of weighing your goat. Do not wait until close to show. Be proactively aware of what your goat weighs and what they need to gain, if anything. All goats must have USDA Scrapie Tag in place prior to Progress Show. Please make sure you arrive no later than 6:00 pm to check in.

PROGRESS SHOW PARTICIPATION IS MANDATORY FOR ALL FIRST YEAR EXHIBITORS

Clinic will be first at 7:00pm followed by a practice show.

Arrangements must be made with the chairperson at least one week in advance in the event the clinic and progress show conflicts with a school function or if there is an illness that has been excused by a physician. The Goat Committee will then vote if it is an allowable excuse. However, the goat entry(s) must still be present for weigh-in.

ALL goats must be weighed upon arrival at the clinic and progress show. It is NOT mandatory to have your goat show clipped. Exhibitors must be neatly dressed (ex. collared shirt).

Showmanship classes will be divided into the following classes based upon the exhibitor's age on September 1, 2022. Classes may be changed that day by the market goat committee.

- a) Senior-Ages 14-19 years old
- b) Junior-Ages 9-13 years old
- c) Novice- First Year Goat Exhibitor

9. Fair Check In: All Goats must be checked-in and weighed on Monday October 2, 2023 at 11:00am. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Only goats that are tagged and are being shown are allowed on the fairgrounds. If an exhibitor cannot check in during the designated time due to school activities, a parent or guardian must check in the animal. Pen assignments will be designated and posted in the goat pen area prior to check in. Exhibitors will be stalled with their 4H or FFA group to the best of the committee's ability.

- a) All goats must weigh a minimum of 60 pounds at check-in. There will be only one (1) Official time across the scale. There will be no reweighs and it must be animal only, no added blankets, etc. Any goat weighing less than 60 pounds is disqualified and must be removed from the fairgrounds no later than 1 hour after the conclusion of the show. Once an animal has qualified for show, it cannot leave the fairgrounds.
- b) There will be no changing of pen assignments. Goats must remain in their assigned pen throughout the fair to be eligible for showing, livestock auction.
- c) All goats must be show clipped upon arrival. There will be no shearing allowed on show grounds. Only hand shearers and cordless clippers may be used for touch ups. This is a blow and go show, there will be no products allowed (Adhesives, paints, oil, shaving cream, powder, etc.). It is still preferable that the goats be dehorned, but if not they may have no more than 1 inch of horn growth and must be healed upon weigh-in on show day. Any horn growth must be smooth. No sharp edges allowed.

- d) There will be no feed and/or water allowed in the pens until after sale order is completed. If you wish to feed or water your goat prior or during the show, you may take it out of the pen area to do so. Drenching in pens is allowed.
10. The WCFA has a ZERO Tolerance policy. Please see WCFA general rules. Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated by the exhibitor or parents/guardians. Please see WCFA General Rules. Unethical fitting will not be allowed. No electronic devices will be allowed at the show. The WCFA general rule relating to the prohibition of the use of drugs and other substances applies fully to the market goat animals. (See WCFA General Rules)
11. The Market Goat Committee reserves the right to perform random drug testing on any animal.
12. Exhibitors are expected to keep their pens (and the area around the outside of their pens) clean at all times. Trash should always be put in barrels and manure should be put in dumpsters. No bedding is allowed in pens. The Market goat committee will be doing random checks from Monday through Saturday. The exhibitor is to feed and water his/her goat daily.
13. Awards will be given in each Market Goat class, each showmanship class, and for Grand and Reserve Champion.
14. Our show judge will determine sale order. Sale order is conducted immediately after the Grand Drive. EVERY GOAT ENTRY OTHER THAN GRAND AND RESERVE CHAMPION ARE REQUIRED TO GO BACK FOR SALE ORDER. Each weight class is lined up according to the placing of that class during the show. If you do not bring your goat back for sale order, that entry will be placed at the bottom of the sale order. Being placed at the bottom of the sale order almost certainly means not making the sale. The committee will not be making phone calls and searching the fairgrounds for you. The committee will not have someone go to your pen and bring your goat to the ring for sale order. It is your responsibility to come back for sale order. If you know at that time you do not want to sell your goat, you will still need to participate in sale order. You may delete that entry from the sale later in the week.
15. If an exhibitor has more than one project that is eligible for sale in the WCFA livestock auction the exhibitor must notify the Market Goat Chairman via email wcfmarketgoat@outlook.com , as to which project they intend to sell no later than one hour after the conclusion of the final market show on Thursday, You must obtain a confirmation email from the WCF Market Goat Email confirming your request to scratch that entry. Other than Grand and Reserve Champions that must sell according to WCFA rules, you must choose which animal will sell. If you fail to notify your chairman, the chairman and the sales committee will choose for you.
16. Livestock Auction: There will be no writing on animals going through the auction ring. Auction sale order numbers are given out prior to the start of the auction. Please see a committee member to get your number if you have made the sale. The sale order is posted Friday morning near the entrance of the show barn. Exhibitors are not allowed under any circumstance to ask a buyer to purchase their project before the auction. They are also not allowed to ask for that project back after it is sold. Please see WCFA General Rules.
17. Thank you notes with stamps and envelopes: See WCFA General Rules

18. Exhibitors are responsible for the removal of their projects from the Waller County Fairgrounds from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 a.m. on the Sunday, following the Junior Livestock Auction. The exhibitor must deliver their project to a destination designated by the final buyer. Failure to comply with this delivery rule will result in a $100.00 delivery charge to be deducted from the Exhibitor's check. The Waller County Fair Association assumes no responsibility for the delivery or loss of the Exhibitor's project. The Exhibitors must sign delivery receipts before the Committee Chairman will release the animal. It is your responsibility to get your animal to your buyer unless other arrangements have been made. DO NOT SEND YOUR BUYER TO THE CHECK OUT TABLE TO PICK UP THE ANIMAL THEY HAVE PURCHASED.
19. The Market Goat Committee does award a Hard Luck award. To qualify for the Hard Luck award, your market goat project must have been maimed or passed away due to unavoidable circumstances. To be considered for this award, the exhibitor must hand write a 300-word essay to be turned in to the committee chairman no later than October 2nd, 2023. The essay should contain facts about what happened to the goat, what it meant to raise the goat, and why the exhibitor feels they deserve the Hard Luck award. Only one recipient may receive the Hard Luck Award each year. The winner is determined by the committee.
